The South High English Department offered many electives to students this year, and with the adoption of a new English Curriculum plans to offer an even broader variety in the area of Language Arts Mass Media, a course in understanding and evaluating public media was offered for the first time this year. Other electives were Developmental Reading, Business English, Journalism, Drama, World Literature and Creative Writing.

A team teaching area was built during the winter months and was utilized by two teaching teams. Provided in the area are a team office, storage space, and a sliding door for more flexibility in program planning.

Seventeen members made up South's English Department and at the present rate of student enrollment increase, the English Department should retain its rank of largest department.

Conferring about textbook adoption are Mrs. Barbara Ward, Miss Gretchen Klippel, and Miss Bobi Osak.

South's Advisory Council

The Advisory Council became an important link between students and faculty during its first full year of service. The accomplishments of the 1968-69 Student Body are as follows

1. Enlarging Homecoming
This year Homecoming included more of the students as well as making it more interesting to the Graduates. Included in Homecoming were a Homecoming Court, Reception, Assembly, and competitive Hall Decorations. Homecoming was a week activity instead of one day.

2. This year a musical was held instead of the Traditional Fun-za-Poppin.

3. The Election laws were expanded so the Candidates could campaign freely by using posters, tags, and buttons

4. An American Field Service Week was also held. This was a fund raising drive among the students to help send an A.F.S. Student Overseas and provide for one to come to South

The members of the cabinet are Laury Lee, Shelli Beck, Pam Cooley, Ann Yancey, Muffy Stewart, Katie Cannon, Bob Hamilton, Phil Barsch, Tom Achterman, Dave Leslie, and Dave Chinnburg

The Girls League Officers include Darlene Whitlock, President; Kim Olsen, Vice President; Claudia Barantyne, Secretary; and Jean Batcher, Treasurer.

Girls League Has Active Year

Big and Little Sister Day was the first Girls League activity this year. It was held on August 28 and helped the sophomores and new girls to the school to get acquainted with South. Other activities include the Magazine Drive in October, which raised money for scholarships, the Christmas Tea for the teachers in December, the Val-o-grams sale in February and the Fashion Show in March.

The Cabinet includes: Kay Jensen, Supplystore; Sally Squire, Finance; Margeret Howell, Service; Lisa Steeves, Publicity, and the Girls League Officers.

Girls enjoy a skit presented for the Magazine Drive.

Wendy Cloyd and Pam Cooley perform in the skit for the Girls League Magazine Drive.

The Girls League Advisor is Miss Maxine Heringer.

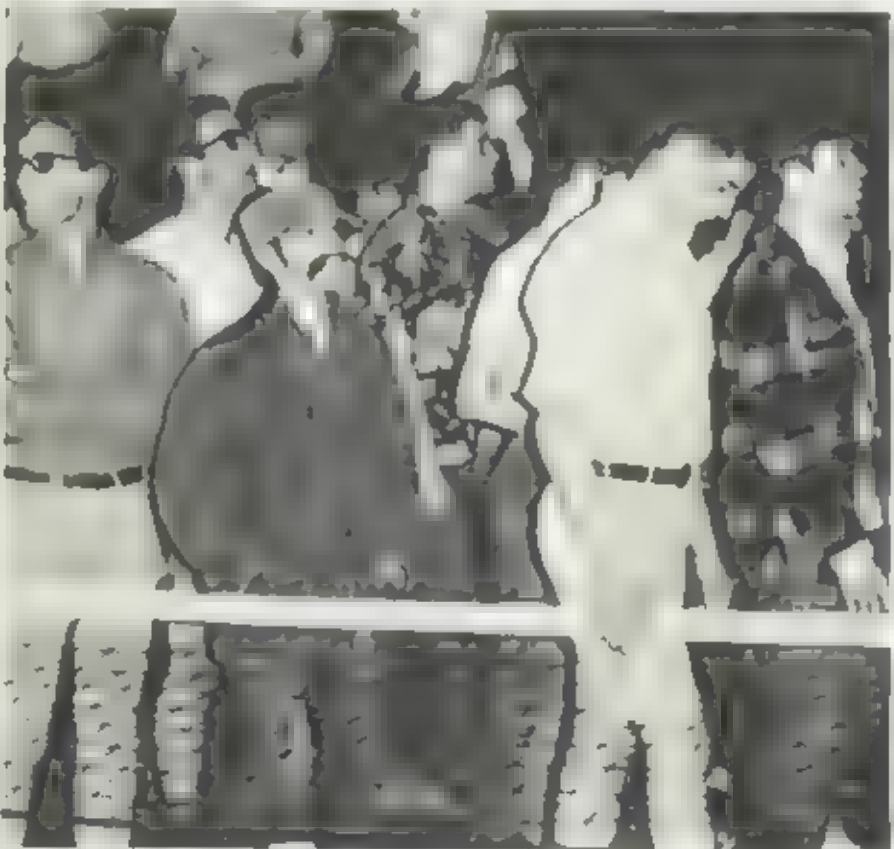

Boys' League officers are Dave Chinburg, Bob Gadach, and John Tillman

The 1968-69 Boys' League was reactivated this year, with the elections of its officers in the fall. Officers elected were President, John Tillman; Vice-President Dave Chinburg; Secretary-Treasurer, Bob Gadach; and advisor, Mr. Ediger

The Boys' League presented a series of speakers, including a man from the Military Service, and three Willamette University football players. They also sponsored the Twirp Day Dance on April 11, and put on a talent show in May

Saxon Choir Performs

Mr. Frame directs the A Cappella Choir, Southernaires Glee Club, Saxophone Quartet and assisted in the direction of "Oklahoma."

The Girls Choir and the Saxon Gleeman are preparatory groups for those students who hope to become members of the A Choir. Directed by Mr. Frame, these choirs serve as general classes for musical enjoyment and vocal improvement. These groups participated in the Fall Concert, the Choral Festival and the Spring Concert.

Southernaires, a vocal ensemble of 16 students selected from the A Cappella Choir, perform as an individual vocal group singing at school programs, and at other community activities.

Tri-M officers are Laura Yeater, Secretary, Steve Bonlie, Treasurer, Doug Stanke, President, Paula Bissell, Historian, and Connie Kaiser, Vice-President.

Orchestra Has

Tri-M, which stands for Modern Music Masters in an honorary club whose membership is made up of outstanding students from the Band, Orchestra, and Choir. Any sophomore, junior or senior selected must have a 4.0 G.P.A. in music and at least a 3.0 G.P.A. in all other classes to be eligible. A recommendation by the instructor is also required. Students who are accepted must perform in a recital for Tri-M members and parents.

Fine Season

The Orchestra conducted by Mr Peter Frejola performed at many programs throughout the year. The season included the traditional Fall and Christmas Concert, the Lion's Club Christmas Luncheon, and at Commencement. The Orchestra also performed at the Winter Concert, at "Oklahoma," and the Senior Recital. Paula Johnson, violin player and Sharon Austin, viola player made the All-Northwest Orchestra. Doug Steinke was awarded the John Philip Sousa Band Award as outstanding senior bandsman. Doug also took first place in District 4 as oboe soloist and competed in the State Solo Contest on April 27.

Connie Kaiser served as President for the Orchestra, Laura Yeater as Secretary, Sharon Austin as Librarian, and Bob Jones as Custodian.

“And the Beat Goes on”

For the 15th consecutive year, Mr. Wally Johnson has conducted the South Salem Concert Band. The Concert Band presented three evening concerts this year in conjunction with the Orchestra and Vocal groups. The band also played in the City-Wide Band Festival at Willamette University. Topping off the year was a concert presented to the downtown Salem Rotary Club.

The Pep Band, or Stage Band, is composed of students from the Saxon and Concert Bands on a try-out basis. This year, the 16 member Saxon Pep band played at all the home football and basketball games and at the pep assemblies. They also appeared at the district Stage Band Festival and at several community functions.

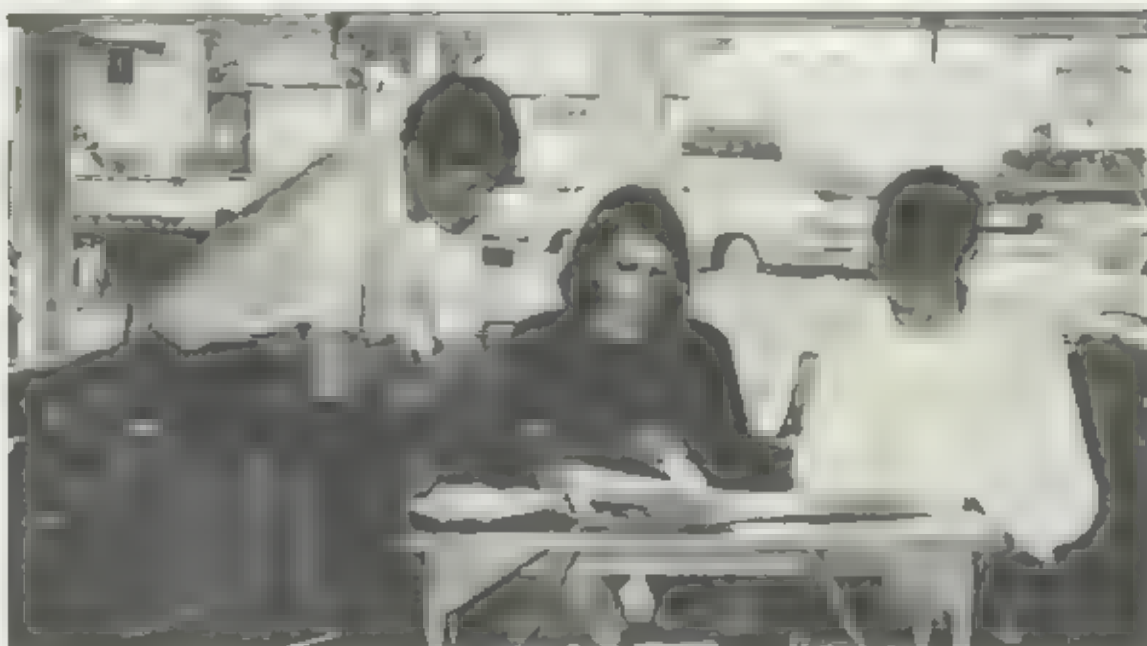

The Saxon Band, composed mainly of Sophomores is the JV group in the band department. During the year, they performed in two formal concerts.

Revolution was the topic studied by the International Relations League of 1968-69. Three study groups led by Linda Henne, Ann Bartsch, and John Tillman examined revolution in the West, the East, and the Third World. Two I.R.L. State Conferences were held at the University of Oregon, one in November and one in April. A Foreign Foods dinner was held at Dave Krive's home and a dinner with the North Salem club was held at North. Officers were: Liz Donovan, President, Paul Wulf, Vice-president; John Seamster, Secretary; Roz Gunner, Historian; and Greg Syverson, Sgt at arms. Mr. Cliff Cook was advisor

Being on the speech team isn't all work. There's time to make friends too!

South's speech team, under the direction of Miss Anderson, had won a total of twenty-three trophies and awards with two tournaments, including the State Tournament, remaining in the season. Their awards include Sweepstakes in senior division at the Dallas speech Tournament and trophies won in inter-scholastic tournaments, usually sponsored by colleges, and in individual oratorical contests sponsored by fraternal groups or other organizations. During the season to attend various tournaments, debaters traveled throughout Oregon. The team also participated in numerous other contests including Soil and Water Conservation American Legion and Oddfellow speech and essay contest at local and district levels Optimist and Knights and Pythias Oratorical contests.

At the district tournament held at OSU on March 8 and April 5, individuals qualified for State competition in the following events: Lincoln-Douglas, Oxford, and Cross-Question debates, Impromptu and Extemporaneous speaking as well as Humorous interpretation and poetry reading.

At NFL District tournament held in Tillamook, John Tillman won first place in Extemporaneous Speaking, thus qualifying to attend the National NFL Tournament in Washington, D.C. to compete with some 100 of the best speakers in the nation.

When a student has earned twenty-five credit points by participating in speech competition, he may become a member of the National Forensics League.

Sixty-five seniors participated in the Cadet Teaching program at South this year. Each student was assigned a class in an Elementary Junior, or Senior high school in the south end of town. Several Cadets also worked with special education classes and with students from the Blind School and from the School for the Deaf. Cadets gained experience working with entire classes and individuals. Working closely with their advisor, Mrs. Lida Halverson, they spent one to three hours daily teaching and observing classroom procedures. All Cadets are active in F.T.A.

Future Teachers of America is closely related to the Oregon Education Association and with the National Education Association. Membership of F.T.A. is composed of students planning for a career in the field of education.

DECA

Distributive Education is offered to students who plan careers in the business field. It is sponsored through the cooperation of the merchants in the community. Distributive Education does not disqualify the students for entrance to college or further education.

Distributive Education is an educational program designed to give high school students an opportunity for study, training and experience in the distributive occupations; that is retailing, wholesaling, and services. This Program has been created and developed to provide on-the-job training, arranged through a cooperative plan entailing local businesses, the school's coordinator, and the students.

All students belong to and participate in the local chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America, the only youth organization participating in marketing and distribution on the high school level. The officers of the DECA Chapter at South are: Bernie Jueden, President, Steve Turner, Vice-President; Kathy Gilmore, Secretary; Kathy Taggart, Treasurer; Cindy Thompson, Parliamentarian; and Debbie Scott, Historian. The advisor for DECA is Mr. Walter Karlson.

New Slopes, Improve Technique

Snow and more snow combined to make the 1968-69 ski season one of the best in recent years. Even though participation in club-sponsored events was somewhat lacking, South Salem skiers skied anyway, preferring to find their own way to the slopes. Besides frequenting the traditional Hoodoo Bowl and Mt. Bachelor, many Saxons discovered the new Mt. Hood Meadows.

The Silver Pine Ski Club, with 225 members, sponsored several trips during the season. Those to Hoodoo included trips on Dec. 14, Jan. 17, and Feb. 15; a bus was also taken to Mt. Hood Meadows on March 1. The yearly overnight trip was to Mt. Bachelor on April 11-13 and was attended by many South High skiers.

Officers for the year included Craig Poole, president; Steve Bjorkman, vice-president; Dave Potter, secretary; Dick Rowell, treasurer; and Nick Cloyd, Nancy Kraushaar, and Tom Thornton, sergeants at arms. Advisor was Mr. Bill Boyd.

3-5-1 for '68 Season

Spirit and exuberance permeate the halls as fall launches the true beginning of the school year, football! Saxons work together to organize their individual enthusiasms into a single wall of support for the team.

Kick off! Rebel war cries fill the air as pigskin soars and pompoms dance. Blazing flood lights set the stage for the gridiron play of a new season, providing memorable moments for both participants and spectators.

Digressing considerably from last year's third-place state berth, the varsity gridiron compiled an unimpressive 3-5-1 slate for the 1968 season.

With only nine returning lettermen, compared to last year's twenty-one, the team was at a disadvantage on both offense and defense.

In the pre-league action, Coach Heater's squad dropped both contests. For the season opener, Saxons traveled to Klamath Falls and after a hard-fought game where three South fumbles were converted for the Pelicans, the 24-36 score rested on the K. Falls side of the board.

Unable to generate consistent drives from an offensive standpoint, South came back the following week merely to be stunned by Hudson's Bay 6-0. It was our first loss on Bennett Field in over 2 1/2 years. The lone score came early in the first quarter on a 75-yd. run by the Eagle halfback.

The league conflict was a different story, however, as South captured third spot in the seven-team Valley District race with a 3-2-1 record. Three wins in a row sent Saxon spirit skyward.

Falling to South were Corvallis, 26-8; Sweet Home, 49-0; and McNary 33-7. Playing the Spartans in the rain on Bennett Field, the Heater machine won its first game of the season and at the same time dealt the Spartans their third loss.

Superiority of offense and defense over the Huskies of Sweet Home resulted in their slaughter by the Saxons. However, the Huskies were a tough team to beat, with three South players suffering major injuries.

Back in Salem the following week, the local powerhouse captured its third straight win by defeating the McNary Celtics. Fullback Gary Johnson led the offensive attack in this the fourth time in four conflicts that South has beaten McNary.

Traveling southward a week later South Salem could not overpower the Lebanon Warriors in a very-hard fought game on their field. Even though the game was tied 14-14, it belonged to the Warriors.

Last year, Albany defeated South 12-0. This year's contest, with the Saxons hosting Albany on Oct. 25, was the biggest contest of the year for both teams, but fumbles cost the locals the game to the district-leading Bulldogs with a final score of 7-6.

The game ended and so did South's chance for a third straight championship bid.

Out of the nine games played during the season, six were in the rain with the remaining three in the mud. And so, as usual, Saxons brought along their friend Mr. Rain to Coos Bay on Nov. 1. Marshfield really whitewashed their visitors in the first half, as the Pirates out-scored the South team 13-0. Although the second half was not a repeat of the first, South could not muster enough momentum to get on top of the highly-rated Pirates.

South High's JV Saxon gridders managed to overcome both weather and opponents for a 5-5-2 1968 grid season. The JV Saxon's won their first two games against Toledo and Newport. Score for both games was 27-6. South JV's dropped their next encounter in a hard fought 14-7 game. In game number four, the JV gridders crushed the Sweet Home Huskies, 45-0 on South's field. Cross town rival for game number five was McNary. South scored victory number four by a 26-6 margin.

Saxon JV gridders again scored a home field victory against the Lebanon JV Braves. The final rain soaked score was 12-7. At Albany, South was dealt its second loss by the Bulipups, a foggy 9-0.

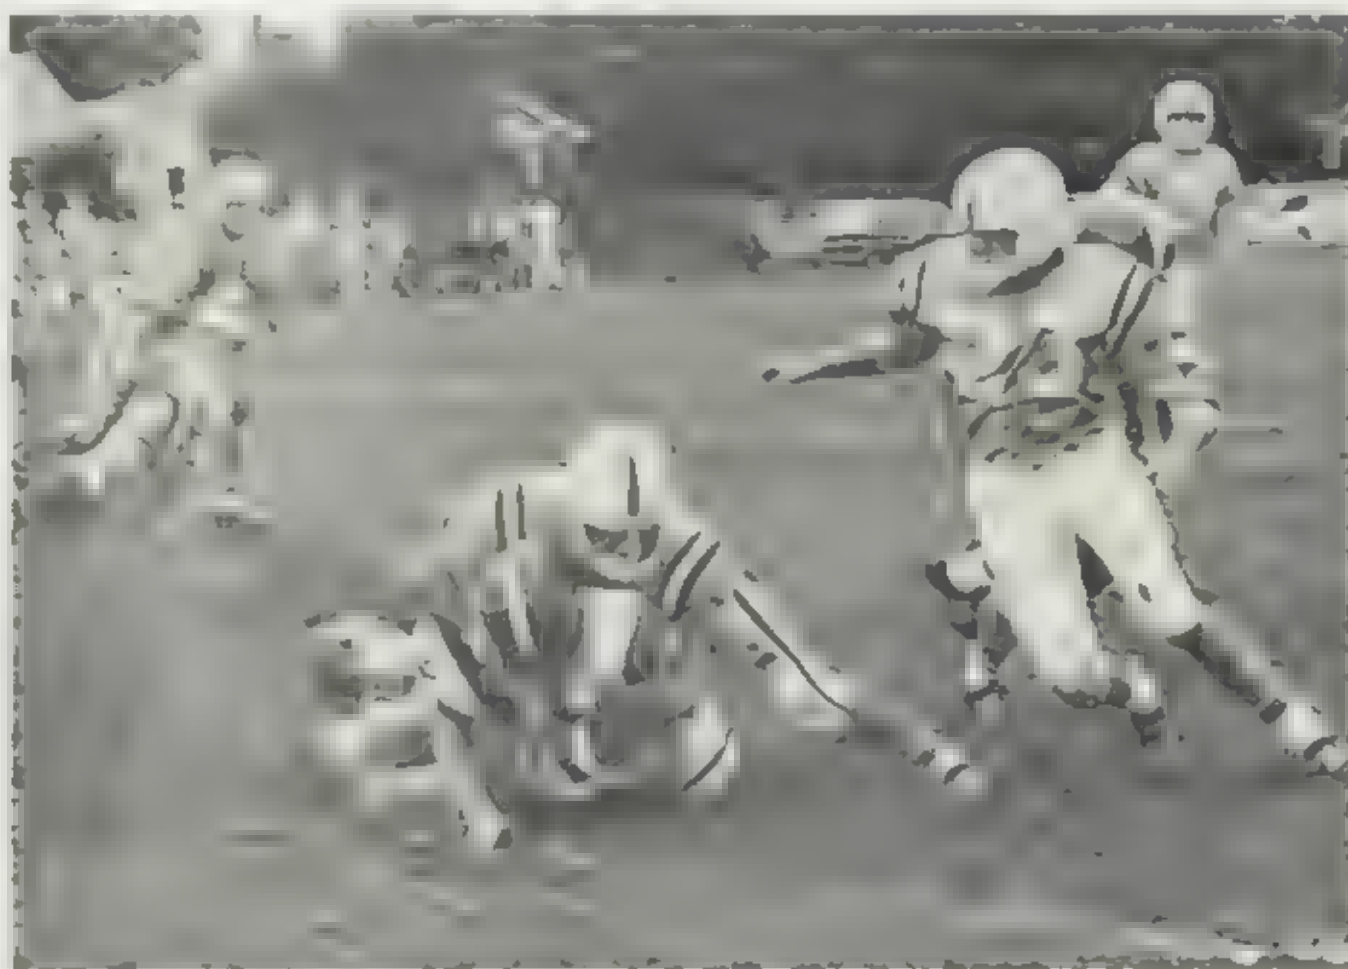

In the final two games of the season Saxon JV's found the final quarter score a tie. In Woodburn against MacLaren the score was 0-0. In the final game of the season the North-South JV civil war game ended 6-6.

The first meet of the cross country season was at North Salem. The Saxons got off to a good start as the score was North 34 South 23. The second meet against Corvallis showed the Spartans winning with the score of South 30 Corvallis 25.

Hudson's Bay Run-a-Ree was held in Vancouver, with South taking second.

The three way meets with Lebanon and Albany, found the Saxons in first place. Then in a meet with McNary and Chemawa the Saxons were awarded second place.

South Salems Steve Davidson broke the record at the North Marion Invitational meet with a time of 11 minutes 25 seconds.

Over the next three meets with Lebanon, McNary and Corvallis found the Saxons on top.

Although winning only four of their seven meets the Saxons were able to capture second in the district meet.

At the state meet held at Willamette University, the team took 10th with Steve Davidson taking fourth place and Doug Steinke taking seventh place in a field of 182 runners.

Beginning their 1968-1969 season with a win against North Salem, the J.V. Saxon Cross Country team began their four win three loss record.

Then on September 20th the J.V.'s had their first loss against Corvallis, and then ending fifth in the Hudson's Bay Run-a-Ree. A second in the meet against Lebanon and Albany brought the Saxons to their fifth

Eugene in Pre-League Action

Compiling one of the most disappointing seasons, the Varsity cagers rolled to a 7-15 record. A potent offense, led by junior Dean Lohrman and seniors Craig Bonney and Dave Edmonds could not pull the team out of Valley League sixth place.

Opening the lengthy season successfully, South squeaked past South Eugene 89-84 on local hardwood. Fighting hard against a 20-point lead of the Highlanders at North Eugene on Friday, the Church Streeters could only come out on the wrong side of the 62-78 score.

Ahead through the first three quarters, the locals went down to the Jefferson Democrats 46-49 after a fourth-quarter comeback by the Portland team. Phil Schradle led in the scoring department with 13 points followed by Kerry Morris and Bob Judson.

Failing to muster enough second-half offensive drive, Saxons fell to the Grant Generals 54-79. The buzzer ended the game as well as South's pre-league action with the record standing at 1-3. Three rounds of league contests saw six wins and twelve losses.

Assistant basketball coaches included John Erickson and Val Barnes.

Wrestling Team Sets Record

Dave Chinburg wrestles 'Bulldog' for a pin

The wrestling season of 1968-69 was the best wrestling season in ten years. The record was 11 wins and 1 loss, with our mighty team falling only to Lebanon. South's wrestlers have proven themselves in more than just the dual meets. They took first place in the Silver-ton Quadrangular, first in the South Quadrangular, and a close second in the Portland Quadrangular. The New Zealand All-Stars came to Salem with their ambitions high, and their losses low. The Salem Area All-Stars which includes South Salem, North Salem, McNary, and one boy from Cascade, destroyed every hope and ambition that the New Zealanders had.

The Saxon wrestlers who competed with the Salem All-Stars against New Zealand were Steve Berkey, Bill Kostenborder, Monte Griffith, Jerry Fuchs, and Mike Tarnasky who did not wrestle because of the injury of his opponent. Another way that Saxon wrestlers have proven themselves was at the Greco-Roman Tournament, where Jerry Fuchs took a first place, while Monte Griffith took a second place. In District, Gerry Moore placed second, then went on to place eighth in State.

Then in a winning streak, South won against North Salem twice and McNary once. In the next three meets against Churchill, Corvallis, and the University of Oregon Freshmen the Saxons found their third, fourth and fifth loss. Finishing the season the team won three meets against Albany McMinnville and McNary. The team ended its season with a 6 win, 5 loss record and they were second in District.

In the District meet Ken Dierks, Guy Grieder and Joe Yates placed in Free Exercise. On the Horizontal Bar the winners were Mike Stoller, Guy Grieder and Glen Ardt. For Long Horse Vaulting, Dave Armstrong placed 6th and on the Parallel Bars, Guy Grieder placed third. In the still Rings event Scott Douglas, Greg Burgess and Guy Grieder were South's winners.

The 1968-69 Girls Gymnastic team, coached by Mrs. Barbara Donaldson, ended their season with a two win nine lose record. Beginning the season with meets against David Douglas and Corvallis, the team found defeat both times. Then at a meet on January 16 against North Salem the Saxons won with a score of 67.8-66.2. The next three meets were lost by South; they were against Newberg, McNary and North Salem. A meet at Churchill found the Saxons with their second and final win before going into a four meet losing streak against Corvallis, Albany, McMinnville, and McNary.

In the district meet held March 8 in Corvallis the team placed sixth. Individual girls who placed were Kathie White—9th in Floor Exercise and Sharon Wheeler—10th on balance beam.

The 1969 Baseball Season

South Salem's Varsity Baseball Team finished its Baseball season with a record of 9 wins while suffering only 3 losses in league games. South tied for first place in district with Corvallis. The playoffs for first in District were played in Albany. On Tuesday the 20th of May, the game and the first place District title was taken by Corvallis by a score of 2-0. With this loss for South, Corvallis ended up with first and South second. South's overall score for the season was 16 wins and only 6 losses.

South's top hitters for the season were Jerry Houck with a batting average of .380 and Jerry Fuchs with a batting average of .317. Dave Edmonds, Jerry Fuchs and Jerry Houck were named to the All District—All Star Team. The Saxons top pitchers were Larry Sparks whose Earned Runs Average was .861 and Phil Schradie whose E R A was .798.

The Junior Varsity Saxons finished up their season with a 9 win-8 loss record. At the Dallas game Dave Ronne pitched a no hit, no run game. The J.V.'s won that game by a score of 14-0. In the game against Albany, Mitch Dewey drove in two runs and then stole home for another run. South won that game by a 3-2 score. Other outstanding South players were Bill Donovan whose batting average was .404 and Mitch Dewey who stole 22 bases out of 19 hits.

Rick Scott about to win the 440

Under Coaches Marv Heater and Don DeClerck the 1969 Saxon Track Squad enjoyed a very successful season. The team was most successful in dual and triangular meet competition winning 6 and losing only 1 meet through the year. Three school records were broken in 1969 with senior star Steve Davidson setting new records in the mile 4:16.7 and two mile 9:32.4, and junior Scott Rutledge setting a new mark in the high jump. Besides Davidson the squads top senior performers included quarter miler Rob Simpson, sprinter Mark Arnold, high jumper Rick Gloor, discus thrower Mike Tarnasky, and sprinter Tim Goffier. Other junior top point producers besides Rutledge included sprinter Mike McCloskey, hurdler Greg Smith, pole vaulter Steve Stauber, and middle distance man Rick Scott.

Three sophomores entered the State Meet in Corvallis and these men were pole vaulter Willie Denecke, and sprinters John Johnson and Gary Whitley. A total of eleven sophomores lettered, an indication that the squad was quite young. The overall team was made up of over forty first year men. The track future at South Salem looks very good.

Caro yn Haakensen prepares to serve in a district match

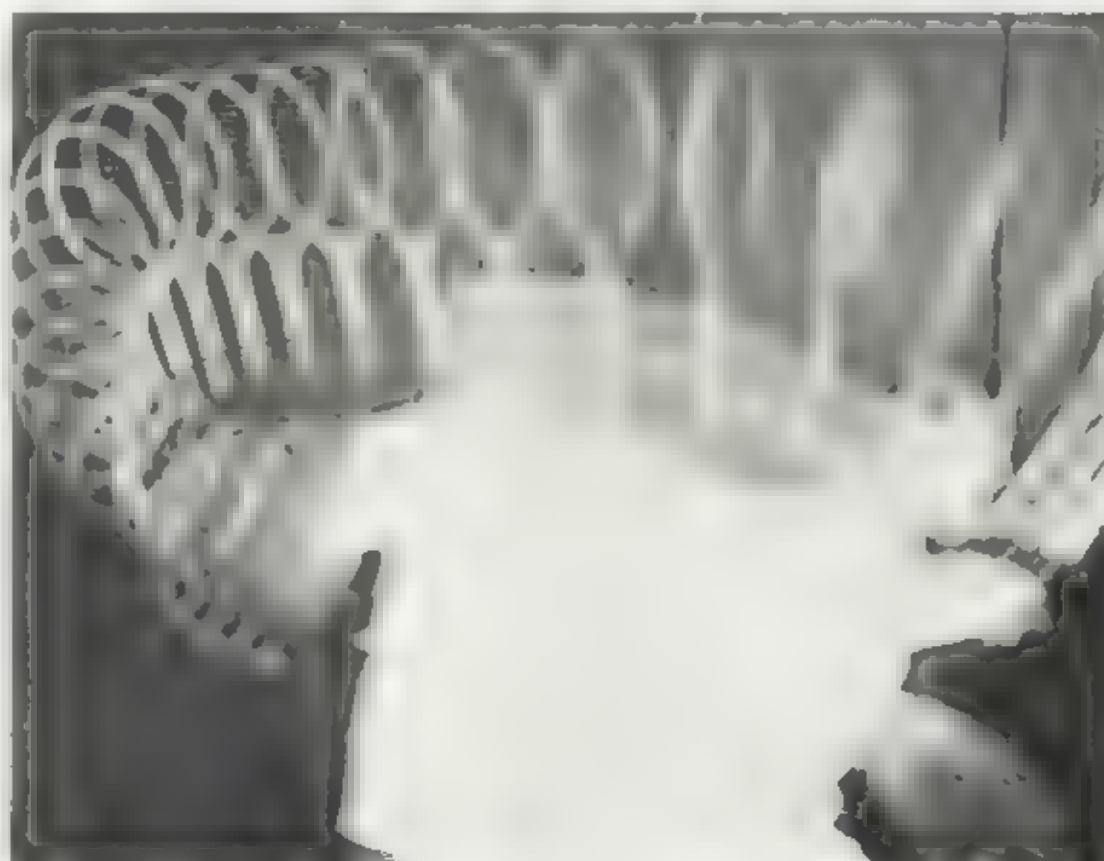

Tennis

Completing the spring season with a three-win, seven-loss record the girls tennis team sent only one player to the state tournament. Carolyn Haakensen, who placed third in district singles competition, traveled to the state meet but was eliminated early in the play.

Triumphs over North Salem and McNary (twice) account for the three wins of the season record. Seniors Soo Rutledge and Carolyn Haakensen served as co-captains of the team while Miss Wilma Earnest provided coaching and guidance.

For the second consecutive year, South's boys tennis team was undefeated in high school competition. Leading the team in the Number One spot was senior Paul Wulf, who placed second in state singles competition this spring. South placed third this year behind Roseburg and Sheldon.

Three other Saxon players went to the state tournament. The doubles team of Allan Shiffer and Dave Steinfeld placed fifth in state, while Mark Williams captured the singles consolation spot.

In district competition, Paul Wulf placed first in singles as Mark Williams and George Schunk were third and fourth respectively. Dave Steinfeld and Allan Shiffer placed third in district doubles.

Coach John Erickson believes that the outlook for next year is for an exceptionally strong team since only one senior is graduating from the varsity squad.

Winning 8 of the 12 scheduled matches, the 1969 Golf Team, coached by Gene McDonald, ended one of the best seasons in South's history, by taking 2nd place at the State Tournament

In the District match held in Salem, South placed first. Junior Jamie Francis placed 2nd with a score of 140 and senior Craig Bonney was 6th with a score of 145

The State Tournament was held in Portland. South entered four members of the team to compete for State Honors. They included Dave Ward, Craig Bonney, Jim Jeddeloh and Jamie Francis

The team was tied for first place, but lost to Lake Oswego in a Sudden Death playoff. Receiving All-State Honors were Dave Ward and Jim Jeddeloh with scores of 151

Christmas Assembly

The Christmas Assembly included two assemblies presented on Friday, December 20. A tableau presented in the morning to the sophomores and juniors, consisted of the nativity scene and narration, and the choir singing appropriate Christmas carols. The J.V. Rally performed to the Ventures version of "Santa Claus is Coming to Town"

The afternoon assembly was produced by the seniors and was presented to the seniors and returning graduates. A skit, Christmas carols by the choir, and the Varsity rally dancing a medley of dances through the ages comprised the hour's entertainment

Assemblies

Various assemblies were held throughout the year, with A. S. B. First Vice-President, Milenie Huggins, in charge of all assemblies. These included programs for Thanksgiving, Christmas and Senior-Alumni Homecoming Assemblies. In January the annual presentation to announce the Coronation Court was held. Several pep assemblies were held in the auditorium with one in the gym where the Sax-onettes performed. The year of fifth period activities was rounded out by the election assemblies held in March and April, and the Senior Awards Assembly May 29th.

Various businessmen spoke to students on post graduation jobs.

Moliere's "Imaginary Invalid" and "The Crucible" by Arthur Miller were the two drama club productions this year. The fall play, "Imaginary Invalid," presented Nov. 14-16, is the story of a hypochondriac and the hilarious effects he has upon his family and friends. "The Crucible," presented March 6-8 and 10 is a dramatization of the Salem witch trials. The cruel injustices that were brought upon the people by the mass hysteria of the witch trials brought tears to the eyes of the actors and the audience. With the dedicated work of the students and Mrs. Quanbeck, South's new drama teacher, the plays were highly rated for school productions as well as being acclaimed by the viewers.

Seniors Victorious Three Years

On January 31, the sophomores and juniors competed in the high school bow. The sophomores won by a score of 155-15. The seniors took on the sophomores in a Valentines Day contest. The seniors were victorious by a score of 195-45.

When the seniors were sophomores, the team consisted of Kim Seymour, Pat Wright, Ann Bartsch, and Dave Edmonds. As juniors, the team members were Ann Bartsch, Dave Edmonds, Kim Seymour, and John Tillman. They have been victorious all three years.

Those competing for the Senior team are Pat Wright, Kim Seymour, Ann Bartsch, and Lamar Faulkner.

Coached by Mr. Mossman, South's Hi-Q Team competed against Sheridan High the week of March 30, and trounced that school's team 240-40. The following week they went against Grant High and lost a close match by a score of 145-170. The team consisted of seniors Lamar Faulkner, Ann Bartsch, Kim Seymour, and sophomore Phil Bartsch the first week, and John Tillman, Ann Bartsch, Kim Seymour, and Phil Bartsch the second week. The team was selected first by results of a written test, then by challenges among the top ten scorers.

The song tells you to follow the "Yellow Brick Road". Guests did just that, past a helium filled balloon, floating its way up through the ceiling. Could this be May 10? Could this be South Salem High School? Walking over a bridge in the Yellow Road, dancers found themselves not in the East Balcony as expected, but they had been mysteriously transferred to a beautiful land of rainbows and music (furnished by the Wally Johnson Band). Refreshments were served by the Tin Man, The Scarecrow, The Cowardly Lion, and Dorothy, who double as ninth graders at Judson. The transformation of the East Balcony into the enchanting Munchkin Land can be credited to the work of Dena Spencer, Kris Kyle, and their committee aided by several other people.

Departing along the Yellow Road, coming from Munchkin Land, back into South Salem, guests thought of what an enjoyable end to a great year the Prom had been. Congratulations should go to Mary Trent, general chairman of the Prom, and everyone concerned.

These four Judson ninth graders served refreshments at the Prom.

Have a Good First Year

1968-1969 was a good year for everyone, but for the 599 sophomores, a better year than most

Leslies and Judsons ninth grade classes combined their many talents and the resulting sophomore class can be found involved in many student activities

One of the high lights of the year was the sophomore party on February 22nd. It was an enjoyable break in the routine of the year, and many participated

Although not much can be said about the sophomore staircase competition, the baby sax did show up the upperclassmen in a Canned Food Drive originated by the sophomores and won by them also

To keep the sophomores informed of the class' activities, there is the sophomore News Letter

In summation, one good year is behind the sophomores and two are in front of them

Advising the sophomore class were Mr. Ballantyne and Mr. Tate

Mrs. Ellis and Mr. Tilton guide Juniors through the year

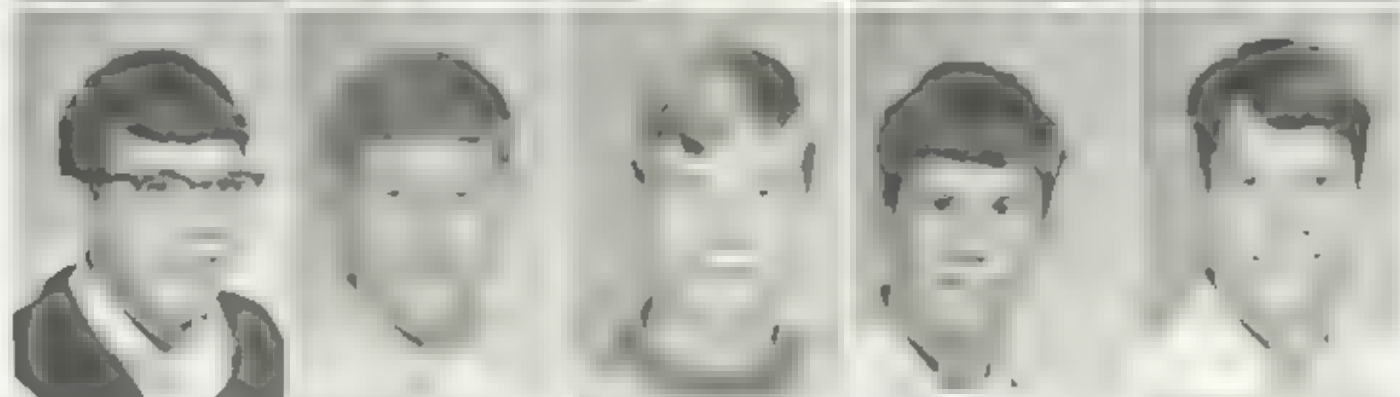

The Junior Class participated in many activities throughout the school year. Among these activities the preparation and presentation of the Coronation Assembly. Under the direction of Class Vice-President Mary Trent, the junior class sponsored many fund raising projects, bake sales, music assembly, and talent show. The main money raising-event was the sponsoring of the "Mini Generation." Proceeds from these activities will contribute to the financing of the Prom. Juniors also won the stairwell competition during Homecoming Week.

The end of the beginning

The class of 1969, consisting of 462 seniors, was one of the smallest graduation classes in South's history.

Beginning as Sophomores the theme "Super Saxon" won the stairwell competition prior to the state football playoffs. During the U G N drive a total of $699.55 was raised.

In their Junior year the main project was to sponsor the Junior-Senior Prom "A mid Summer Night Dream" held on May 18.

In their last year at South, four members of the class of 1969 were National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test semifinalists: Ann Bartsch, David Leslie, Craig Porter, and Valerie Clappison. In December, "Thanks for the Memories" was the theme of the 1968-1969 Saxon homecoming which was given by the Senior class to welcome home the grads. Final tests were taken, banquets and Baccalaureate attended, final honors received and then—graduation.

Mrs. Judd and Mrs. Graham served as Advisors for the Seniors.

Senior Banquet

Nearly 300 Seniors met at the Marion Hotel for the annual Senior Banquet. It took place on May 20 at 6.30 p.m. Patty Marsh, general chairman and Barb Price master of ceremonies, organized the evening. Students ate dinner and later listened to Mr. Aschenbrenner speak. He startled many with the latest gossip of the class. The Ramsey Embick Trio, Tom Tilton, The Broom Street Singers, and Katy Haggerty provided entertainment for the evening

By the looks of attendance, the Senior Banquet was a success

The Class of 1969 begins their Graduation March headed by Student Body President Dave Krives and Graduation speaker John Tillman

“Those Were the Days . . .”

As our school years come to a close with long last looks and tears.
We pause a moment to look back,
over the last twelve years

As we march into the future through a misty haze
We look into the past again
and say 'those were the days

Maria Machado, South's Foreign Exchange Student from Brazil is awarded her diploma

Barbara Price delivers her Graduation speech

The 516 members of the Senior Class of 1969 began their Graduation march at eight o'clock on the evening of June 4, 1969. The Seniors marched through the gym to 'Pomp and Circumstance' played by the South High Orchestra. Reverend W. Price Rutledge, Minister of Calvary Temple, gave the invocation. Doug Steinke followed the invocation with an oboe solo: 'Concerto for Oboe and String!' Barbara Price then presented her speech 'From Here to There.' John Tillman, Commencement speaker spoke to the Graduating class.

After waiting twelve long years the seniors were then presented their Diplomas by Dr. George B. Martin, Assistant Superintendent of Salem Public Schools. Following the presentation of Diplomas, the Class of 1969 sang the Alma Mater for their final time. The Benediction was given by Rev. Rutledge. The Graduates then made their final exit to 'Cornelius Festival March', which ended their public school education.
